Board of Trustees Meeting Notes

Attendees: Lorraine Warriner, Conrad Hink, Betty Jean Hink, Nancy Orlopp, Julie Mullen

I. Call to order

Betty Jean Hink called to order the regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Greenwood Reading Center at 2:11(pm) The agenda was adopted by 5 votes. Prior meeting minutes were read by Nancy Orlopp. Betty Jean Hink moved for approval, Conrad Hink seconded and it passed by a unanimous vote.

II. Period of Public Comment:

No public comment was offered.

III. Treasurer's Report

- a) Report of Receipts and disbursements was read by Nancy Orlopp.
- b) There were no warrants to report.

IV. Director's Report See attached.

V. Old Business

- a) The bank account was opened shortly after the May board meeting. All paperwork and documentation has been provided and only awaits the funding from STLS to be fully utilized.
- b) The Director is working with STLS financial staff on the transfer of the funding.

- c) The director was reminded that labor posters still need to be posted in easy view of staff. However, given the imminent move, it seems foolish to post them now, only to remove them while packing.

VI. New business

- a) The official notice of eviction was delivered by courier from the town's attorney. The director was given permission to post said notice on the door. Discussion was made of the possible need for an attorney. The director promised to enquire about attorneys specializing in library law.
- b) The safety concerns regarding the current building were discussed. Even if the town were to rescind the eviction, we would still be unable to stay, due to the space concerns and barring outright donation of the building, the electrical issues.
- c) Packing has begun for the move to a new space. Boxes were requested of all board members.
- d) The budget proposition passed, which will increase our 2027 funding from 24,714 to 43,670

VII. Period of Public Expression

No public expression was offered.

VIII. Other Business

The director suggested that a financial gift be made to our student NHS volunteer, who logged 40 hours of volunteer time over the course of the school year when her requirement was just 17 hours.
